

NORTH YORKSHIRE FIRE & RESCUE SERVICE

Director of Finance and Service Development Ian Young

Ian is a native of West Yorkshire. After graduation and a spell with the National Union of Students, he joined the Greater London Council's Treasurer's Department in September 1979 where he worked on a series of development projects across the finance function.

He also worked in the Council's Policy Studies Unit providing support to the Planning and Development, Arts and Recreation and Finance Committees.

In 1986, after abolition of the GLC, he joined the Directorate of Finance and IT of the London Fire and Civil Defence Authority (latterly LFEPA) working mainly in the Investment, Capital and Technical Finance areas but also Corporate Developments such as Investors in People accreditation and Performance Management.

He ended his time with LFEPA as Assistant Treasurer joining North Yorkshire in September 2000.
